Listening text: The lion and the donkey

The lion thought that he was very clever and all the other animals were very stupid and he kept telling them this. He thought that the donkey was the most stupid animal of all.

One day, the lion saw a man building a house. The man was standing next to a big wooden box. 'Go inside your new house,' said the man.

The lion went inside the wooden box and the man said, 'I just have to put some more nails in the door.' Then he quickly nailed the door shut so that the lion was trapped inside.

Then the man ran away to fetch help.

Just then the donkey walked past and saw the lion in the box. He laughed at the lion.

The lion growled. 'I can't get out!'

'I will help you,' said the donkey lifting both of his back legs, he kicked hard against the side of the wooden box. The box broke into little pieces and the lion jumped out.

The two animals ran away. They became good friends after that. And the lion never called the donkey 'stupid' again!

The lion and the mosquito

It was a very hot day. Lion was lying under some trees. It was good to be the king of the grasslands.

“Buzz!” The lion lazily swatted at a mosquito. But the mosquito kept on buzzing around him. “Buzzzz! Zzzzeeee!”

“I’m not afraid of you,” buzzed the mosquito. “You can’t catch me!”

The lion swatted at the mosquito again. But the mosquito was too quick. He flew out of the way.

“I’m much quicker than you!” the mosquito bragged.

The lion got really angry. He thrashed out at the mosquito but all he did was scratch his own nose.

“Bye!” said the mosquito. “I need to tell everyone that I am quicker than the king of the grasslands! Hee hee! Buzz!”

But the mosquito didn’t see a little spider’s web nearby. He flew straight into it . . . and the spider gobbled him up.

The mosquito wasn’t as clever as he thought he was!
